

In the 1920s – from the notes of Margery Lambert

2 Chimney Sweeps, (Henry Luff & Sooty Hurst), kept chimney's clean, thus avoiding thatch fires around the Village 1 Blacksmith , 1 Hardware Store (Pinks) supplied the village with hardware.

Memories of WW II in East Meon:

“When he came home, he’d stand on the bridge at Pink’s corner and play marbles with the children.”
