

E. Meon Legion standard ceremony

Over 60 British Legion members paraded at East Meon on Saturday for the laying-up of their old standard and the dedication of the new one. The old standard was carried by Mr. F. Gibbs, escorted by bearers from neighbouring branches. Inside All Saints' Church he was accompanied to the chancel by the branch president, H. C. Clifford, and the chairman, Mr. A. R. D. Bishop. The service was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. J. Lawry, and Bishop B. P. Robin gave an address. A trumpeter from the Hampshire Regiment sounded the Last Post and Reveille.
