open and were busy all night. Dancing to JTD's disco provided some interesting 'moves' and much amusement to many. The evening was rounded off by the lighting of the beacon on Park Hill and a spectacular firework display.

I am reluctant to list all those who need thanking as I am bound to forget someone but it could never have happened without the help of the committee and their families, the many organisations and groups within the village and the generosity of those who gave donations. Most importantly it was made by all those who came to support and enjoy a very special occasion.
