			The bells were rehung with new fittings, augmented to ten and tuned by Taylors of Loughborough in 1990, the centenary of their being hung in the 1890 frame. The cost of £25,000 was raised locally by a fund raising committee under the chairmanship of Mr John Rendle C.B.E.. The augmented and restored ring was dedicated by the Right Reverend Timothy Bavin, Lord Bishop of Portsmouth on Sunday, 27 th January 1991
