

County to get protest over village halls

Wiltshire County Council is to face a protest over its plans to close village halls in the county.

The council has announced that it will close 10 village halls in the county by the end of 2010. The halls are in the villages of Blandford, Blandford Forum, Blandford St Giles, Blandford St John, Blandford St Mary, Blandford St Peter, Blandford St Thomas, Blandford St Vincent, Blandford St Wilfrid and Blandford St Zeno.

The council says that the halls are "no longer viable" and that the closure is necessary to save money. However, the village halls are a vital part of the community and many people are opposed to the closure.

The council has received a petition from the village halls in the county, signed by over 1,000 people. The petition asks the council to reconsider its decision to close the halls. The council has said that it will consider the petition but that it is unlikely to change its decision.

The council has also announced that it will close 10 other village halls in the county by the end of 2010. The halls are in the villages of Blandford, Blandford Forum, Blandford St Giles, Blandford St John, Blandford St Mary, Blandford St Peter, Blandford St Thomas, Blandford St Vincent, Blandford St Wilfrid and Blandford St Zeno.

The council says that the halls are "no longer viable" and that the closure is necessary to save money. However, the village halls are a vital part of the community and many people are opposed to the closure.

The council has received a petition from the village halls in the county, signed by over 1,000 people. The petition asks the council to reconsider its decision to close the halls. The council has said that it will consider the petition but that it is unlikely to change its decision.

The council has also announced that it will close 10 other village halls in the county by the end of 2010. The halls are in the villages of Blandford, Blandford Forum, Blandford St Giles, Blandford St John, Blandford St Mary, Blandford St Peter, Blandford St Thomas, Blandford St Vincent, Blandford St Wilfrid and Blandford St Zeno.

The council says that the halls are "no longer viable" and that the closure is necessary to save money. However, the village halls are a vital part of the community and many people are opposed to the closure. The council has received a petition from the village halls in the county, signed by over 1,000 people. The petition asks the council to reconsider its decision to close the halls. The council has said that it will consider the petition but that it is unlikely to change its decision.