

16.3.00
Gang of six snatch cash

Thieves stole cash after distracting staff at East Meon Post Office last Thursday.

Wpc Karen Warren said: 'A group of possibly Eastern European people entered the door and distracted the owners.'

'When another customer was served it was realised that a quantity of cash had been taken from the till.'

A post office spokesman said: 'They distracted the postmaster and made a cash snatch through the security door.'

The theft by three men and three women happened at about 2.45pm. The six are thought to have left in a 'tatty blue car'.

Anyone with information should contact Wpc Warren on 01730 262666.